11 Great Jones St. New York April 10/76. Hon. William Lloyd-Garrison, 125 Highland Street, Roxbury, Mass. - My dear Sir Your letter and article on Benjamin Lundy were duly received last week for which we desire to express our hearty thanks to you for your kindness in preparing the same. We were very sorry to learn that you had been so ill and we sincerely hope that you will soon be out again as well as ever.
We shall take great pleasure in printing your article in its entirety and you shall see a proof of it as soon as it is received from the printers. We shall send the first and second vols. of the cyclopaedia to you today and the remaining two (2) shall follow as issued.
Enclosed you will find a receipt for the books which you will please sign and return to us. There is one other request that we would like to ask of you, namely, that you review these books at your leisure and forward us your opinion of them in the shape of a testimonial which we will have set up and inserted with the rest on the final pages of the first volume.
Hoping you will find time to favor us as above, we remain with many wishes for your welfare,

Very Truly Yours

A. J. Johnson & son.
